Jazmin, the 6 year old artist for this card, is separated from her father who fled from Venezuela to Canada. Along with her siblings and mother,

Jazmin herself has since had to flee the family home.

In this drawing, Jazmin drew the family dog, who had to be left behind with a cousin when she and her family was uprooted.

She writes “I love you, Daddy”

Thousands of children are experiencing years of separation from family members due to the Canadian government's decision to delay family reunification for refugees.
